My DIARY

My Diary for 1935

Signed Helen M. Fetchlin

To my good friends,
Lucile Haskell, editor, and Damon Wetteraer, business manager, with Miss Foreman as faculty advisor, I give permission to edit this, My Diary, as the Quiver of 1935, deleting all such personal material as they see fit, and arranging its contents to suit their plans.

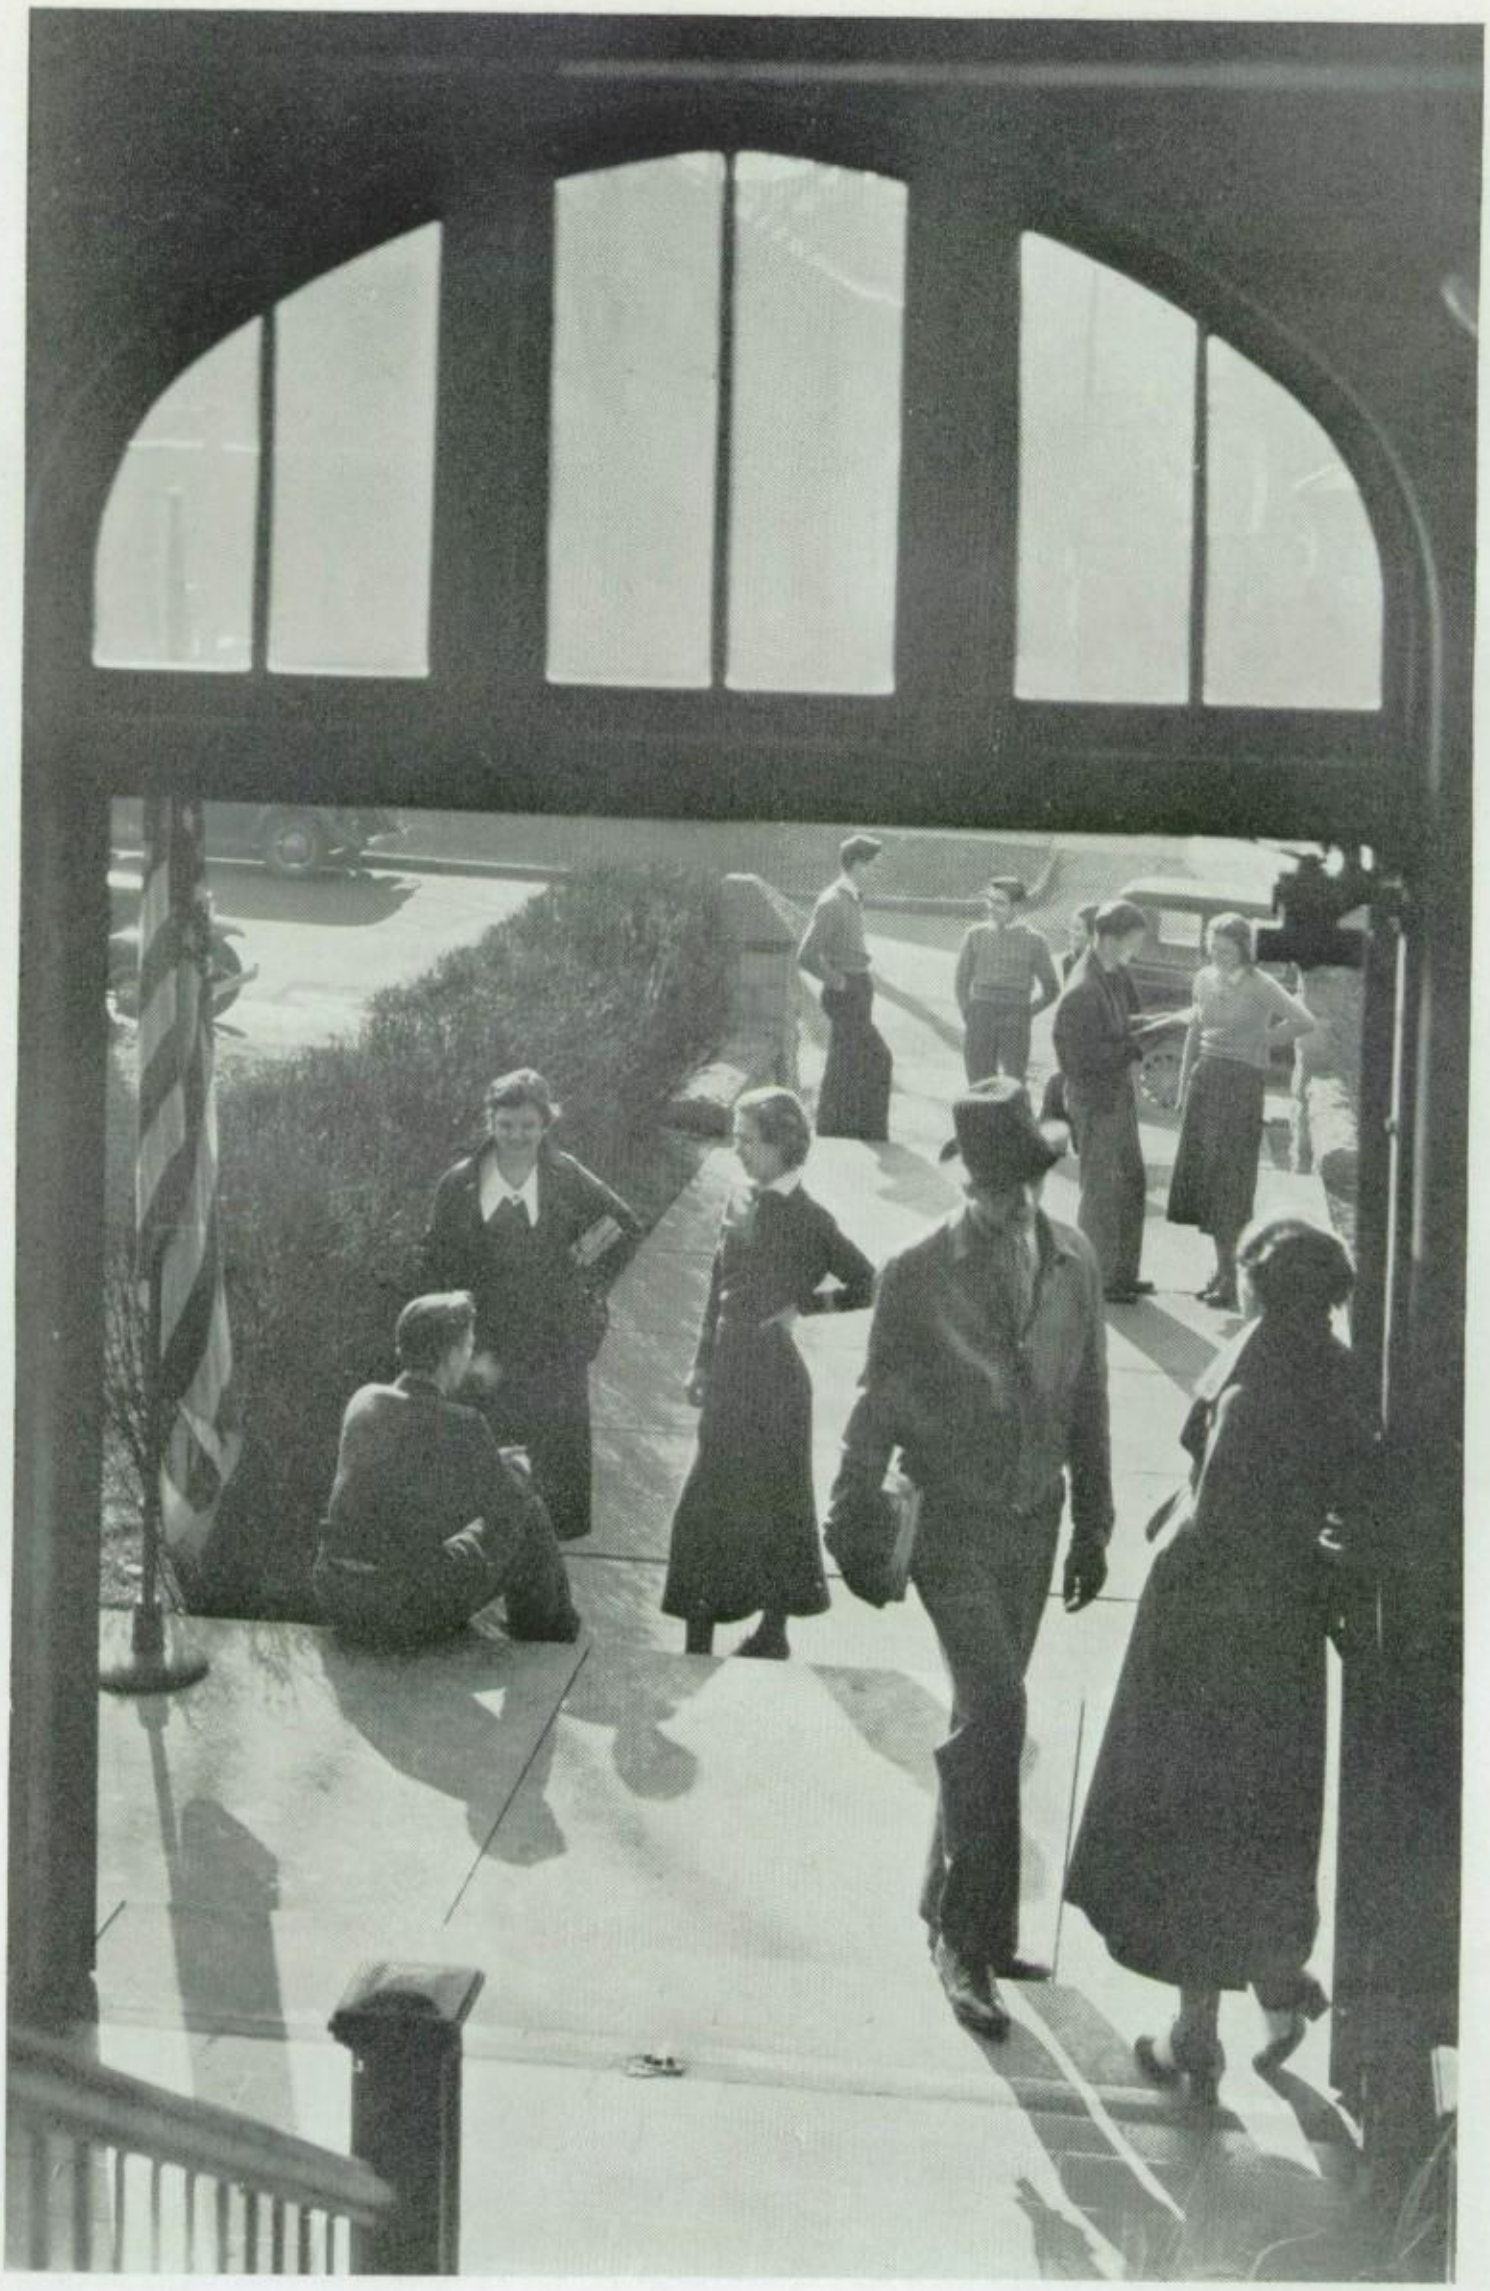
I dedicate this, My Diary, to Mr. Dewey Bohyer, who is mainly responsible for our team winning the N. C. O. Championship cup.



Dear Diary I have Arrived!
Here you'd see some of my classmates entering the south door of Harding High School.

After a long quiet summer, Harding's halls resounded the more noisily on September 10 as classmates, old and new resumed their studies.

The beginning of the year witnessed several faculty changes. Miss Moak, Miss Conley, Miss Stuckey, Mr. Runkle and Mr. Wilson appeared for the first time on Harding's faculty.

Different emotions were experienced by the various classes as they entered into this phase of their progress: a pleasant sense of excitement and uncertainty animated the Sophomores; a sense of security of position pervaded Junior classrooms, but lacking was the feeling of the "beginning of the end" which inspired the Seniors to attempt to leave an unblemished record behind.

I have confidence in youth to meet the challenges of a changing world.

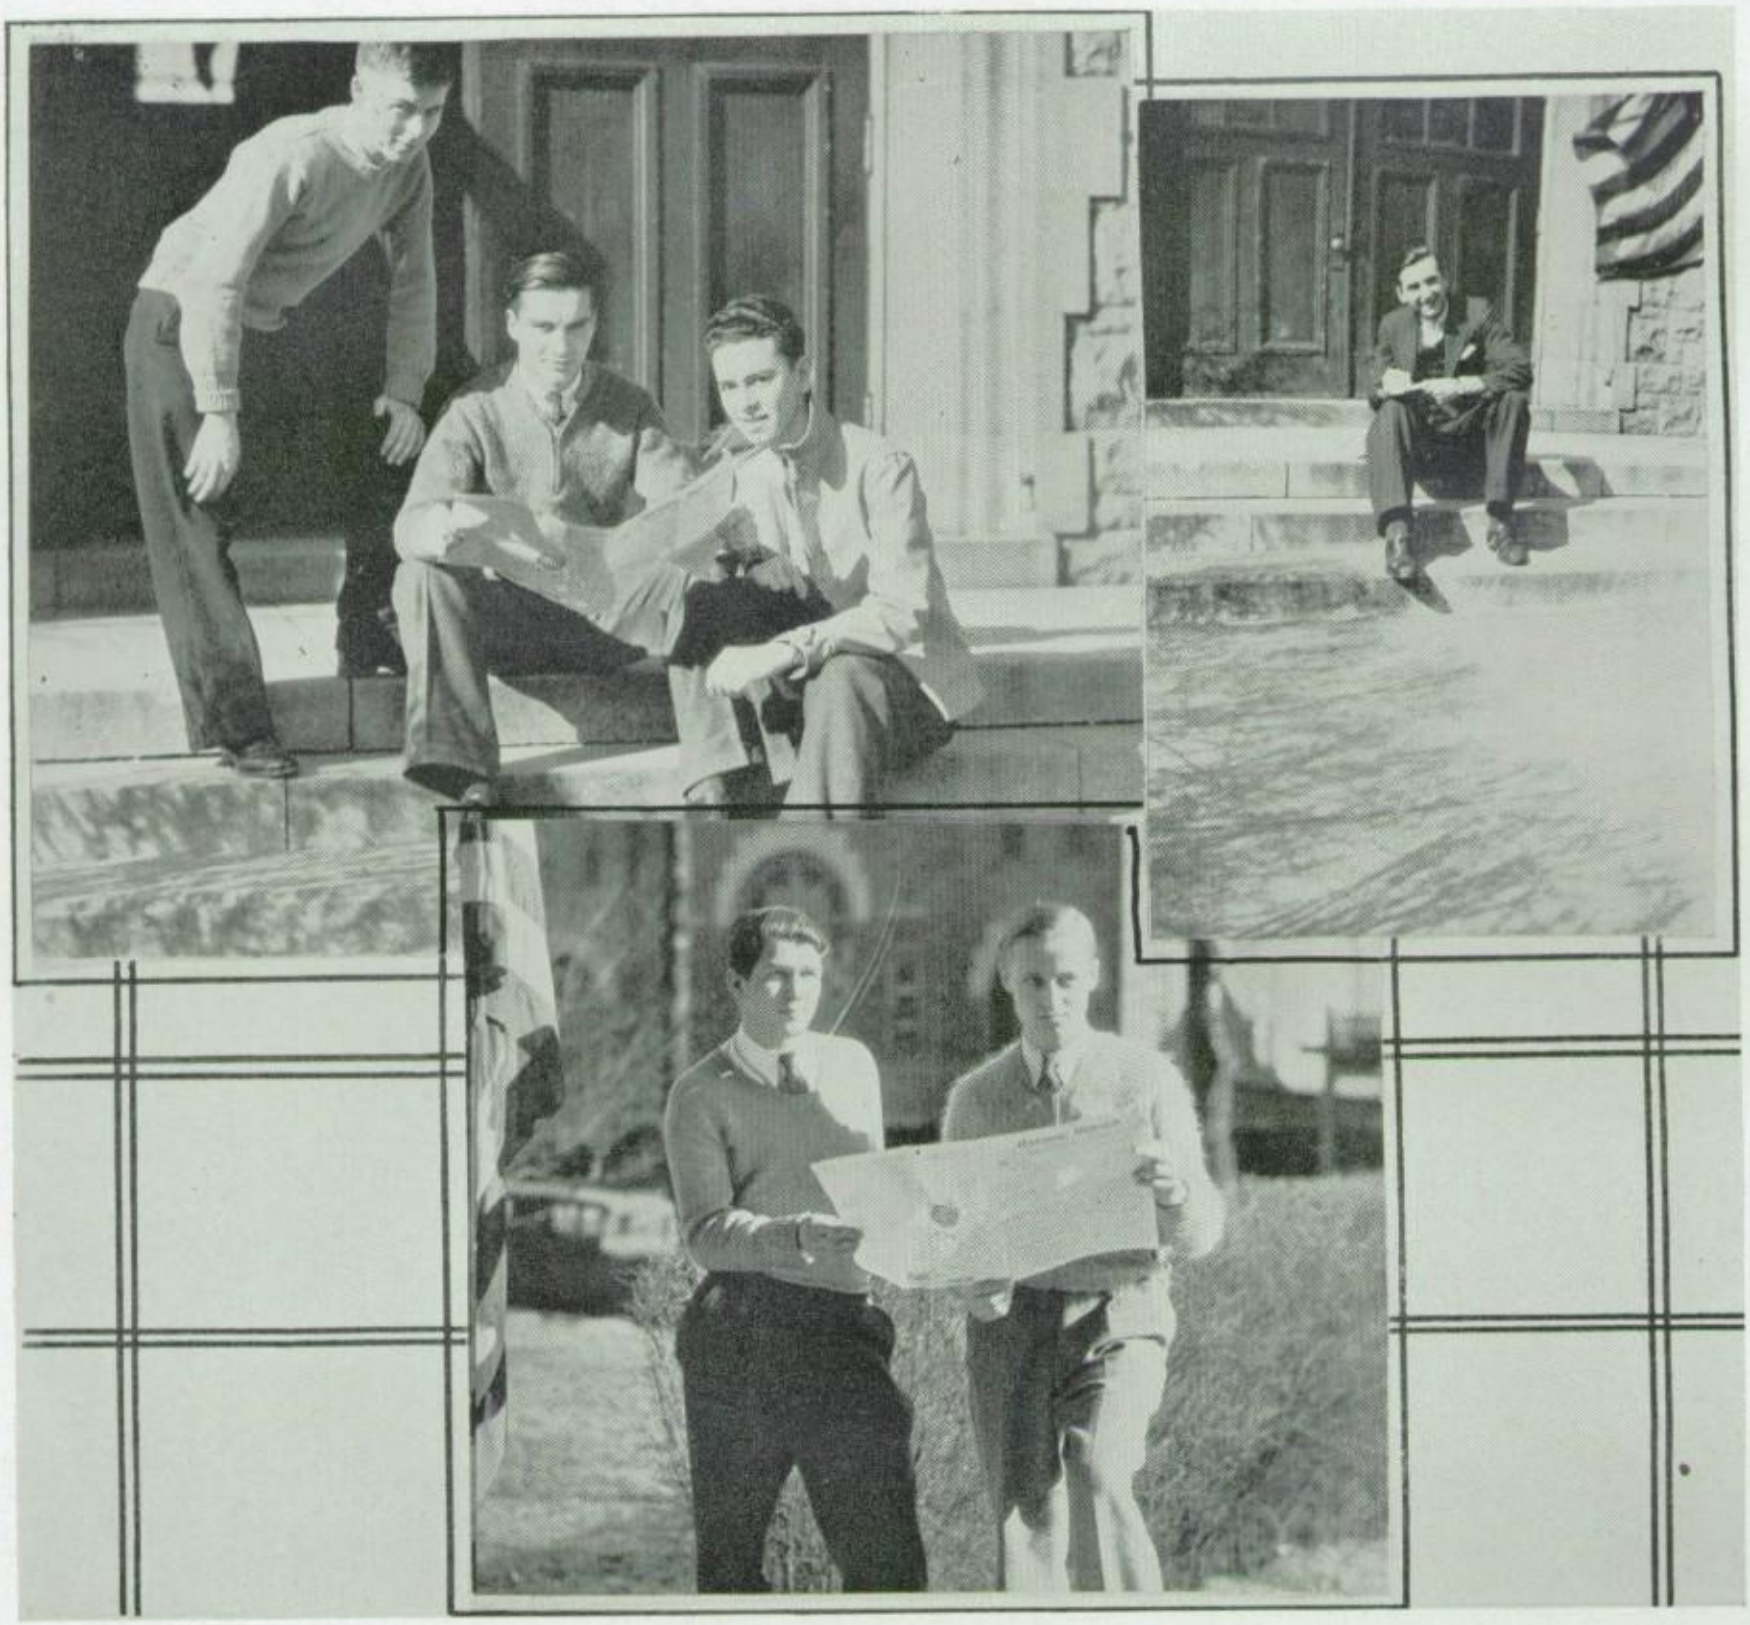
HERALD STAFF



The weekly publication, The Harding Herald, exercises an important influence in the life of the students of Harding High School.

When the N. C. O. cup was awarded us, an eight page paper was published, dedicated to the basketball team.

The Herald has been a success under the guidance of Walter Ruzzo and Oliver Rowley, editors; Damon Wetterauer, business manager; Richard Crow, advertising manager; and Lucile Foreman, faculty advisor.

ANNUAL STAFF

It is an unavoidable fact that there will probably be some dissatisfaction when this book reaches your hands. There is more work than one really expects in the assembling and publication of a Quiver, and as "nothing is perfect", the Quiver is no exception.

This Quiver is not just the result of the work of one person, but is made possible by the cooperation of many.

PRESS CLUB

Studying the fundamentals of newspaper work and writing articles for the weekly publication of the Harding Herald is part of the work of the Press Club. Under the direction of Miss Foreman, the Press Club was organized by the journalism class of 1925. It is composed of the students studying Journalism.

Those students who have an average of B or above in English the previous year may be a member of the journalism class.

The editors were Walter Ruzzo and Oliver Rowley, who were assisted by Karl Stewart.

The members were: Karl Bechtel, Page Boyer, Rupert Brown, Juanita Burdge, Dorothy Clum, William Collins, Yvonne Cory, Willard Durfey, Eleanor Epley, Louise Gracely, Wilma Hart, Eleanor Hedges, June Heck, Virginia Jackson, Jack Markwith, Fred Myers, Cloyce O'Brien, Ellen Phillips; Marguerite Price, John Pritchard, Jack Robbins, Wilfred Staker, Richard Stewart, Ellsworth Stinehelfer, Martha Jane VanAtta, Fred Warner, Kathryn Welch, Ruth Wells, Harry Winters, Jane Wires, Marlowe Witt, Mary Anne Young, Delia Woods, Elizabeth Stoll, and Patricia Stoll.

HONOR SOCIETY

The highest honor that can be attained at Harding High School is membership in the National Honor Society. The faculty chooses the members from the highest fourth of the class in scholarship, but only fifteen per cent of the class may be chosen.

The symbol of this organization is the keystone and flaming torch. Its four principles are Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. Miss Edith Brown is faculty advisor of this organization.

The purpose of the club is to give additional attention to the study of Roman life and the classics with the idea of creating more interest in the subject.

A pin was chosen by the Inter Nos girls in 1913 and has been used each year since that time. The standard Inter Nos pin is in the shape of a shield with a curved piece on the top, bearing the words, "Inter Nos". On the shield are the initials H. H. S. and the date of the year in which the members are graduated.

Officers for the year were: Lois George, president; Louise Gracely, vice-president; Dorothy King, secretary; Kathryn Courtad, treasurer; Dorothy Clum, reporter; and Marian Marks, song leader.

Other members were: Mary K. Alheit, Velma Boxwell, Janet Kirts, Betty Jane Leib, Betty Moore, Mary Jane Reamsnyder, Dorothy Thew, Grady Tucker, Marie Weston, and Maurita Yeagle.

The members are those students who aid Miss Jacoby in the library. They met the third and sixth Monday of each six weeks' period. Books reviews, musical numbers, and articles of interest to librarians were features of the meetings.

The club was founded in 1929 with Miss Etta Jacoby as sponsor.

In 1925 Mr. K. H. Marshall organized and now sponsors the Student Council, the purpose of which is to promote greater interest in the activities of the school. Each home room is represented in the membership of the Council.

No appointed time is set for the meetings. The Student Council is called together from time to time to pass judgment on the types of assemblies, how to handle the student body in the halls, and to carry information back to the Home Rooms.

INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH CLUB

To provide an incentive for a higher standard of scholarship and to provide a means whereby leadership may be exercised and promoted, is the purpose of the Industrial Research Club.

The vocational students whose scholastic ratings are among the highest third of the entire enrollment of that department for the first and second six weeks' period are eligible for membership. The club met twice every month at the school.

About seventy-five students were enrolled in the Vocational Department. Not only do they gain shop experience, but a certain amount of academic work is required of these students.

The officers for the year were: Richard Jennings, president; Donald Yoakum, vice-president; and Charles Riley, scribe.

The members were: Howard Bonsel, Alfred Davis, Gilbert Everly, Burl Fritch Jack Grover, Robert Higley, Emmett Jeffers, Walter Keck, Charles Krueger, Harold Moody, Dale Needles, Carl Primm, Clarence Rinnert, Paul Roush, Earl Sutton, Delmar Wilcox, and Glenn Winters.

KINESIAN CLUB

The Kinesian Club is composed of girls who elect gymnasium in their senior year. The club is sponsored by Miss Rachel McAfee, who founded the club in 1926.

The meetings were held every Wednesday in the gymnasium. The first part of the year the club took up tap dancing and the second semester, volley ball.

The outstanding social events of the year were the Christmas Dance and the Spring Dance. The Kinesian Club acted as hostesses for "Patrons' Night" which was given by the Physical Education Department.

This year there were forty-eight members.

The officers for the year were: Martha Jane Sweney, president; Jane Myers, vice-president; Donna Rae Biggert, secretary, and Elizabth Fox, treasurer.

HI-Y

HARDING

ATHENIAN

The purpose of the Hi-Y organization is to maintain and extend throughout the school and community higher standards of christian living. Clean living, clean speech, clean scholarship, and clean athletics are the principles upon which it was founded.

Composed of high school boys, the club was divided into four chapters, the Harding, the Athenian, the Falcon, and the Tower. The meetings were held every Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. with Damon Wetterauer as president. The latter part of the evening was given over to individual group meetings.

HI-Y

James Woods was president of the Harding Chapter, Robert Cass was president of the Athenian Chapter, Phil Wagner was president of the Falcon Chapter, and Frederic Hoch was president of the Tower Chapter.

Other officers of the City Hi-Y were: Harry Winters, vice-president; Willard Durfey, secretary; and James Woods, treasurer.

Several times during the year the Hi-Y held a join meeting with the Girl Reserves at the Y. M. C. A. Guest speakers included Mrs. Grace Parlett Sifritt and Dr. Frank Slutz of Dayton.

DRAMATICS

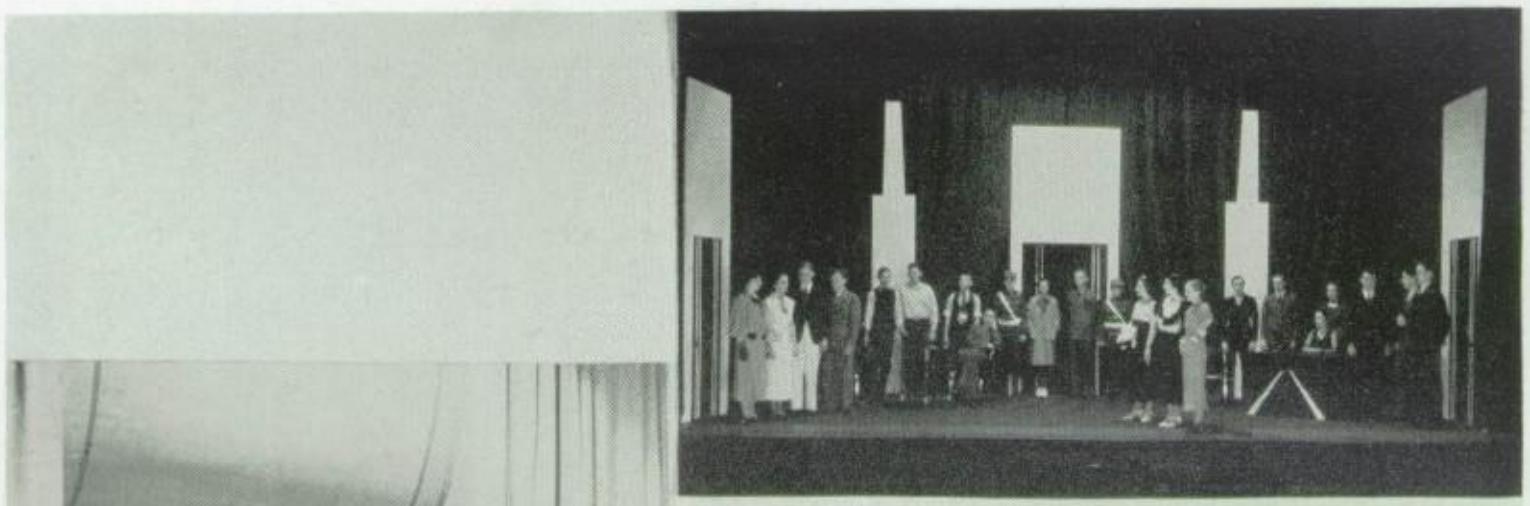
Near November of the school year the junior class gives three one-act plays. In March the seniors gave their annual class play. Both of these productions are under the able direction of Miss Lucile Foreman.

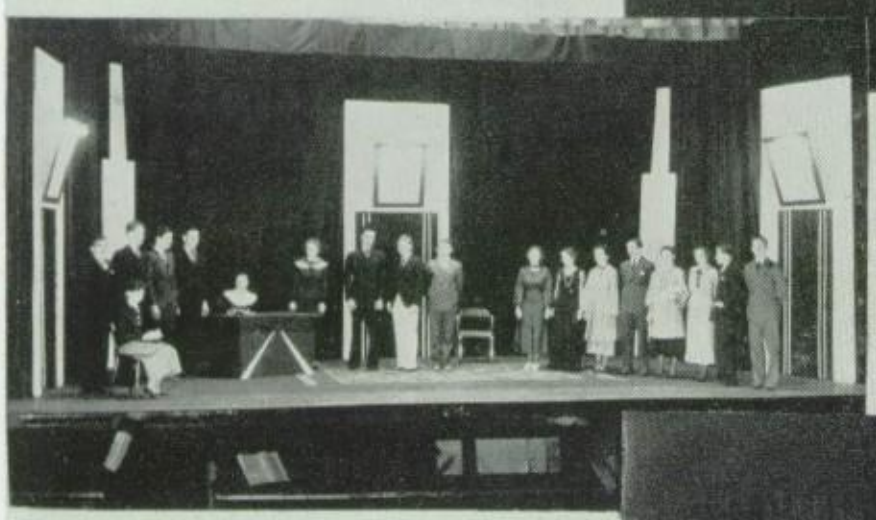
The members of the junior and senior class plays are included in the dramatic club, "Ye Merrie Players." The purpose of this organization is to create a greater interest in dramatics and to bring the participants of the different productions in social contact with each other.

A banquet is held for these members at the end of the year recalling the pleasant happenings and humorous incidents of the various plays.

EDISON SENIORS

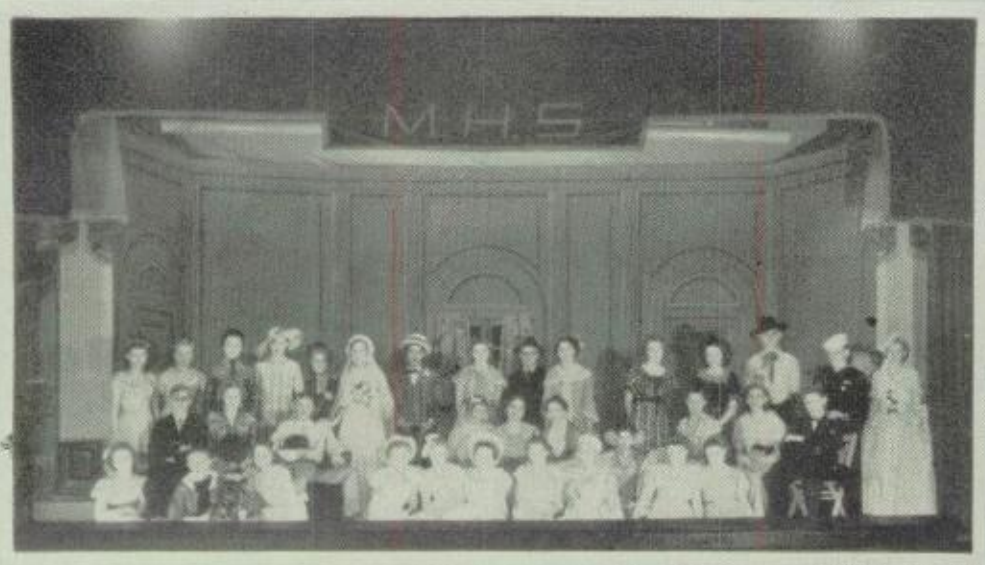
SENIOR PLAY





The senior play, "Once In a Lifetime" had one of the largest casts of any Senior Play yet produced. The three leading characters, Jean Williams, Walter Corrigan and Dan Saiter leave for Hollywood to start a voice school. This school fails but the dumbest member of the team makes good because of his innumerable mistakes.

JUNIOR PLAYS



The junior class presented three one-act plays, Dress Reversal, Photographic Reveries, and The Patchwork Quilt.

These plays offered three different types of dramatics, and were enjoyed by audiences and actors alike.

FOOTBALL

Coach Gerald Cheadle opened the second year of his Harding regime this past season. Practice started two weeks before the opening of school and the season began Sept. 28.

Bedecked with new equipment, the Presidents opened with a 7-0 win over Willis High of Delaware. The game was played at the neighboring city. Goerlich plunged for the touchdown, Winters the same for the extra point.

A new opponent, Tiffin Calvert, helped inaugurate our home season. Our boys ran into a good tackling, blocking team with an exceptionally good backfield man and were defeated 31-13. George Conroy scored the first local touchdown via the air route and Frazier the second on a plunge.

The night of Oct. 5 found the red and black in Bucyrus. Showing plenty of fight and spirit the Harding team succumbed to the heavier enemies 6-0 only after one of the stiffest fights imaginable. Frazier and Walker were outstanding.

Mansfield again appeared on the horizon just as we opened the N. C. O. season. Journeying to Mansfield on Oct. 13, the local athletes showed a complete reversal of form from that at Bucyrus and went to defeat 9-0. Frazier was a satelite until injured.

Oct. 20 found Findlay at Marion. Conroy scored for Marion on a pass and Winters plunged the point to give Harding a 7-6 lead at half time. Findlay scored again in the last half and remained ahead, winning 18-7. Winters was outstanding and lost two touchdowns by falling after being in the clear. Faught was a tower of strength at end.

Oct. 27, second league game, and Galion. Playing at home and on a very cold, windy day "our boys" regained their seemingly lost punch and won 13-0. Goerlich and Frazier scored for Harding.

Ashland came to Marion the following week determined to cinch the N. C. O. championship. They could not be denied. Not scoring until late in the first half they came back with a rush to score four touchdowns during the last two periods to win 33-0. Corrigan, President tackle, was severely injured during the first half.

After a week's rest Shelby, our last N. C. O. opponent was met at Fairground field. Apparently fairly evenly matched Shelby had much the better of the passing attack and won 19-6. Faught scored on a long pass from Frazier.

As a climax to the football season a novel affair was arranged for Thanksgiving Day. The Alumni was pitted against the varsity squad in a benefit battle for the first time. The proceeds went to the new stadium fund. The older boys won and the football careers of many Harding athletes were closed.

BASKET BALL

Harding started their basketball schedule with an untried team. Coach Bohyer had only two lettermen left from the powerful squad of the previous year.

In the first league game of the year the men met Shelby in a rather one sided contest in which they took the long end of a 31-12 score.

The next team to be met by Harding was Galion. The game turned out to be a fast, close one in which Harding barely pulled thru with an 18-26 score.

On Jan. 25, the Presidents had their annual tilt with Ashland, whose team was considered the weakest in the N. C. O. Harding had the lead up till the last three minutes of the game when Rosie Starn's boys forged ahead to a 25-21 victory.

Feb. 1, Harding met their keenest rivals, the Mansfield Tigers in a game exciting to the finish. At the end of the first half Mansfield led 11-3. After a rest at the half the Bohyermen came back into the pine and brought the score up to 18-15 at the three quarter mark. The last quarter Harding pulled themselves out of the hole and won the game 25-20.

On Feb. 12, Harding played their first return game with Shelby and after a rough, but one sided contest beat them 24-12.

The next return game was Galion, Feb. 22. In this game Harding did not let the score run as close as in the preceding game, but defeated them 38-17.

In a game with Mansfield which meant a great deal, not only would it he the second defeat in several years that Mansfield had suffered at the hands of Harding, but it would give the Harding boys the first place in the N. C. O. Harding won the game by a 32-12 score.

In the final game on March 1, Harding met the only N. C. O. team to defeat them, with the intention of partly wiping that mark from their slate. In a fast exciting game the Presidents defeated them 33-27.

Just look at all those books . . . Kent & Mary, Dan & Martha Jane . . . must be spring fever . . . Page teasing the girls again . . . Dick Crow, Dick Keller, Jack Lautenslager, Harry Winters, Dick Probst, Leonard Wooley and Ernest Owens.

SENIOR CLASS SONG

(Tune—Home On The Range)

Now we must part,
From this class of our heart
And the school we shall never forget,
Where never was heard,
A discouraging word
In our years at dear Harding High.

And now it's good-bye
To dear Harding High.
Our Alma Mater so true.
Now as we depart
You're so dear to our hearts,
We pledge our best efforts to you.

CHORUS:

Class of '35
We raise our standards high.
Our friendships sincere
We will always hold near,
For memories we'll need by and by.

HARRY WELLER.

The one in the middle is Pat . . . Our Junior and Sophomore cheerleaders . . . another club . . . the subdeb club . . . Jack gazed and gazed but all in vain—it was only an ad . . . Harry and Mary Jane — Jamie and Esther — Our four regulars.

SOPHOMORES

Freshmen from Central and Vernon gradually lost partisanship through mingling in Harding's "melting pot", the Sophomore class.

They chose for their new leaders: Forest Sharrock, president; Olen Flickinger, vice-president; Irene Klingel, secretary; Mahlon Gast, treasurer.

Specialized Printing for Schools and Colleges : :

FOR years we have cooperated with teachers and students in the printing of high school and college publications. A variety of periodicals of educational institutions — year books, monthly magazines, newspapers and class books — are printed annually in our plant.

We operate the largest printing and book binding establishment in central Ohio and our facilities make available a complete modern service.

We have a trained staff of consultants whose years of experience in this specialized work enable us to offer valuable suggestions, advice and ideas in facilitating the work of school printing and solving its problems.

Further information upon request of faculty members or students in charge of publications.

THE MASTER STUDIO

Junior P.—"I didn't sleep well, the shade was up."
Gerald S.—"Why didn't you pull it down?"
Junior—"It was across the street."

Miss Starr—"Name a figure of speech."
Don Creasap—"Anne Hastings."

Damon—"Would you like to go to a track meet?"
Jean W.—"I'd love to."
Damon—"Maybe I can sell you a ticket."

Clerk—"Sure it's a selffilling pen."
Bill Islay—"I want my money back, I've always had to fill it myself."

Miss Brown—"What's the difference between an American and a Frenchman?"
John Short—"The Atlantic Ocean."

Bob Mason—"What is a lake?"
Walt. Corrigan—"A body of water surrounded by bathing beauties."

Mother (at dinner)—"William, I do wish you would stop reaching for things. Haven't you any tongue?"
Wm. Collins—"Yes, but my arm can reach farther."

Telegram (to B. Vaughn)—"Washout on line; can't come."
Bob's reply—"Borrow a shirt and come anyway."

Father—"Willard, why are you always at the bottom of your class?"
Willard—"It doesn't really matter dad, we get the same instructions at both ends."

Bettie Hawkins thinks no man is good enough for her. She may be right.
"Umm—and she may be left."

Mr. Dunlap—"Can you give me an example of wasted energy?"
Bud Dutcher—"Telling a hair raising story to a bald headed man."

Mr. Runkle—"How do you account for the fact that I found a piece of a rubber tire in one of the sausages I bought last week?"
Howard Barkley—"That only goes to show that the motor car is replacing the horse everywhere."

Elsie K.—"Hi-ya."
Virgil G.—"Not for hire, already got a job."
